

For more information about friends or relatives visiting or living in Japan, you can visit:

- The State Department

Stay informed about current conditions in the region through the Smart Traveler Enrollment Program and by visiting our travel information pages.

If you are looking for an earthquake or tsunami related message concerning a specific country, please visit that country's U.S. Embassy or Consulate website available at www.usembassy.gov.

Latest News

- Frequently Asked Questions
- Travel Alert
- Recent Embassy Notices for American Citizens

Contact Information

For calls from within the U.S.

1-888-407-4747

For calls from outside the U.S.

1-202-501-4444

For concerns about a specific U.S. citizen in Japan

JapanEmergencyUSC@state.gov

- The Consulate General of Japan in San Francisco has set up a special operations room to receive inquiries concerning the earthquake.

P: 415-356-2486 (during business hours)

P: 415-777-3533 (after business hours and weekend)

You can email sa2cg@cgjsf.org to learn more about providing assistance to victims of the earthquake.

- U.S Embassy in Tokyo
- Google Person Finder

For more information about the situation and how to help, you can visit:

- U.S. Agency for International Development \(USAID\)